

Su Tarr is a Violinist based in Richmond, VA. She performed with the Cleveland Symphony at age nine, after winning a Concerto Competition. Studied at the Cleveland Institute of music until attending college @ Ohio University. While in college, performed with the Charleston, W. VA. Symphony and the Huntington W. VA Symphony. After settling in Richmond, she performed with the Richmond Symphony for five years.

Su is a founding member of Southern Horizon, a nationally recognized historically accurate civil war interpretive musical group for more than 25 years.

For over 20 years, Su has performed at Colonial Williamsburg in the taverns and other venues.